

The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

ANNEXURE III

7.3. TWO BEST PRACTICES

i. FIRST BEST PRACTICE

Develop reciprocity and cooperation among students to totally eliminate malpractice like ragging in the college campus
Objective	To totally eliminate ragging in College
Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Faculty interacts with students regularly so as to educate students not to get involved in the ragging of fellow students.• Interactive sessions of junior and senior students are held on different issues and they are encouraged to develop buddy relationships.• Strict monitoring is done through CCTV cameras in classrooms, canteen and corridors.
Outcome	The College does not have any incidence of ragging.

ii. SECOND BEST PRACTICE

Promoting religious freedom, secular practices and unity in diversity.
Objective	To give students freedom to nurture and follow their religious beliefs, thus building up a multicultural environment in the College which in turn reflects unity in diversity.
Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Religious discourses are regularly conducted in the College• Multi faith festivals are celebrated in the College
Outcome	Students are found to have a more tolerant approach to each other's faith and a better appreciation of their diverse backgrounds.
